

Good Shepherd, Truest Pastor

Charles Varsogea, 2002

L.R. Payton, 2002

1. Good Shep-herd, tru - est Pas - tor, the hus - band of the flock, You 2. We stub - born sheep de - spise You; we mock, blas - pheme and kill. Our
3. Our sins had to be pun - ished; they could not be ex - cused. Pro -
4. You know us and Your Fa - ther. Make us to know Your voice. Lead 5. The flock re - mains a rem - nant yet oth - ers will be drawn. Your 6. Praise we our faith - ful Fa - ther Who gave You, Lord, to us. Praise are the strong de - fend - er, the wall, the gate, the lock. From fil - thy fleece at - test - ing the bond - age of the will. You tect us from the hire - lings who flee when we're ac - cused. They us through righ - teous pas - tures and drive off thoughts of choice. Your Rod and Staff will com - fort and guide them to the dawn When we our Shep - herd Pas - tor, in You we sole - ly trust. Praise damned and reck - less ways, Your peo - ple You have gath - ered Whom bathe us with Your blood and, all our sins re - mit - ted, You run and cringe and cow - er but You were pun - ished for us And Bo - dy and Your Blood in one con - fes - sion bind us, In breaks the light of grace. Your Word of Scrip - ture spo - ken By we the Ho - ly Ghost. By Wa - ter, Word and Sup - per You pride and er - ror scat - tered on dark and cloud - y days. fill us with Your Spir - it in that bap - tis - mal flood. rose a - gain vic - to - ri - ous; ab - solve us with Your pow'r.

 one true flock u - nite us with You Who makes us good. men whom You have cho - sen will show the world Your face. shep - herd us for - ev - er, O Tri - une God of Hosts.

